PRIVACY POLICY

In accordance with the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000, Rockhampton Girls Grammar School is bound by the ten (10) National Privacy Principles established by the Federal Privacy Commission and set out in the Act - see www.privacy.gov.au

The School considers all personal, sensitive and health related information of parents/guardians, students and prospective employees (considered "consumers" under the Act) to be private and only uses information collected and recorded to fulfil the educational mission of the School.

In abiding by the National Privacy Principles the School will:

- Collect personal, sensitive and health information by fair, lawful and non-intrusive means.
- Only use the information for the provision of quality schooling. In addition, information may be collected and recorded to satisfy the School's legal obligation, particularly to enable the School to discharge its duty of care.
- Not disclose or distribute personal, sensitive or health related information collected from its consumers without the consumer's specific consent or unless required to do so by law. The School may distribute aggregated statistical information for reporting purposes, but information that identifies a person will not be disclosed to third parties without consent.
- Disclose, with consent, from time to time, personal, sensitive and health information to others for administrative and educational purposes. This includes medical practitioners and people providing services to schools, including specialist visiting teachers and consultants, sports coaches and volunteers.
- Take reasonable steps to protect personal, sensitive and health information held from misuse, loss and unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.
- Right to Enquire – Contact previous schools in relation to previous enrolments.

Marketing and Fundraising: The School treats marketing and seeking donations for the future growth and development of the School as an important part of ensuring that the School continues to be a quality learning environment in which both students and staff thrive. Personal information held by the School may be disclosed to an organisation that assists in the School's fundraising, for example, Parents and Friends Association. Parents, staff, contractors and other members of the wider school community may from time to time receive fundraising information. School publications like newsletters and magazines, which include personal information, may be used for marketing purposes.

If a consumer believes that any of the personal, sensitive and health information held by the School is inaccurate, incomplete or out of date, they have the right, in accordance with the provisions of the Act, to make any updates or corrections.

Privacy issues within the School can be discussed on a confidential basis with the Principal.

I/we hereby agree that the School can make any enquiries at any previous schools/colleges attended by my child/children.
